

Book of Remembrance

Make LauraLynn an important part of your life story

We are extremely grateful to every person who makes a lasting gift to the children and families cared for by LauraLynn. If you would like us to remember and honour your generosity in line with your wishes, we can record your family name and message in our 'Book of Remembrance'.

The book is located in LauraLynn House and will be there for visitors to view your personal message which will be recorded alongside many other legators who are helping us continue to provide support for children with life-limiting conditions and their families and wish to help advance and transform the face of palliative care for children in Ireland through enabling us to invest in research and training of our Care Team.

By completing this form and including it with your Will or by returning it to me directly for safe keeping, we can ensure that your gift in your Will will be recognised and acknowledged in accordance with your wishes.

LauraLynn is a legacy to the all too short lives of our precious girls Laura & Lynn, and it is dear to our hearts always. I have made the decision, together with Brendan to leave a gift to LauraLynn as I couldn't think of leaving this world without a last little gesture which I know will mean so much to the families and their precious children, for whom I care so deeply. I can rest in peace knowing I'm still helping, even after shuffling off this mortal coil.
