1. Who we are

The Children's Sunshine Home, operating as LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice (The Service) is a voluntary healthcare organisation. Established originally as The Children's Sunshine Home, it is funded primarily under Section 38 of the Health Act by the Department of Health through the Health Service Executive for the provision of an agreed level or quantum of service under a service level arrangement. Additional funding is received through other sources such as grant aid and public donations. We operate in accordance with our Vision & Mission statement and in keeping with the statutory requirements and standards applied from external sources, such as HIQA, DOH, HSE, and Child Protection Services. The Service is a Registered Charity, and is a Company set up under the Companies Act, limited by Guarantee and not having a Share Capital.

Mission

Our mission for our disability service is to provide a Community of Care that delivers;

- A home to our residents where quality-of-life is paramount

Our ambition ultimately is that the adults in our care are supported to reach their full potential.

Values

Our three values, Compassion, Collaboration and Excellence underpin every aspect of care and support provided. We believe in delivering excellence by providing hospitality to all who come in contact with us and we promote dignity, respect and compassion towards every child and their family.

This Privacy Statement refers to our commitment to our compliance to data protection legislation including the Irish Data Protection Acts and the EU General Data Protection Regulation.

Throughout this document "we", "us", "our" and "ours" refers to LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice. Our registered address is Leopardstown Road, Foxrock, Dublin 18-Eircode: D18XO63.

What happens if LauraLynn has made my personal data public?

If we have made your personal data public, we, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, will take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform those who are processing your personal data that you have requested the erasure.

What happens if LauraLynn has disclosed my personal data to third parties?

Where we have disclosed your personal data in question to third parties, we will inform them of your request for erasure where possible. We will also confirm to you details of relevant third parties to whom the data has been disclosed where appropriate.

Data portability

When can I receive my personal data in machine-readable format from LauraLynn?

You will receive your personal data concerning you in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format if:

- processing is based on consent or contract
- processing is carried out by automated means.

Would LauraLynn transfer the personal data to another service provider if I requested this?

We can transfer this data to another service provider selected by you on your written instruction where it is technically feasible taking into account the available technology and the feasible cost of transfer proportionate to the service we provide to you.

Under what circumstances can LauraLynn refuse?

You will not be able to obtain, or have transferred in machine-readable format, your personal data if we are processing this data in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us.

Will LauraLynn provide me with my personal data if the file contains the personal data of others?

We will only provide you with your personal data, ensuring we protect the rights and freedoms of others. Where personal data of another person may be on the same file(s) as yours, we will redact the full details of the other person.
