

LauraLynn Privacy Statement Volunteer Programme

1. Who we are

LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice

LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice provides specialist palliative and supportive care services to meet the needs of children with life limiting conditions and their families in Ireland. Our LauraLynn Model of Care describes our supports within five pillars of children's hospice care: Direct Care, Family Support, Symptom Management, End-of-Life Care and Bereavement Support. The aim of our Model of Care is to ensure that the right child receives the right care, at the right time, in the right place, by the right team.

Children's Disability Service

The Children's Sunshine Home, operating as LauraLynn, Ireland's Children's Hospice (The Service) is a voluntary healthcare organisation. Established originally as The Children's Sunshine Home, it is funded primarily under Section 38 of the Health Act by the Department of Health through the Health Service Executive for the provision of an agreed level or quantum of service under a service level arrangement. Additional funding is received through other sources such as grant aid and public donations. We operate in accordance with our Vision & Mission statement and in keeping with the statutory requirements and standards applied from external sources, such as HIQA, DOH, HSE, and Child Protection Services. The Service is a Registered Charity, and is a Company set up under the Companies Act, limited by Guarantee and not having a Share Capital.

10. Implications of not providing information

Where lawful basis is a statutory or contractual requirement, or if an individual is obliged to provide their personal data, (such as criminal record declarations, address history) in order for us to process your application or maintain your registration, failure to provide this information may result in you not being eligible to volunteer.

11. Processing your information outside the EEA

Some of the third parties we share your data with may reside outside the European Economic Area (which currently comprises the Member states of the European Union plus Norway, Iceland and Liechtenstein) as well as the United Kingdom. If we do this, your information will be treated to the same standards adopted in Ireland and include the following data protection transfer mechanisms:

- Model Clauses (also known as Standard Contractual Clauses) are standard clauses in our contracts with our service providers to ensure that any personal data leaving the EEA will be transferred in compliance with EU data-protection law. Copies of our current Model Clauses are available on request.
- Transfers to countries outside the EEA which have an adequate level of protection as approved by the European Commission (such as the United Kingdom).
- Transfers permitted in specific situations where a derogation applies as set out in Article 49 of the GDPR. For example, where it is necessary to transfer information to a non-EEA country to perform our contract with you.

12. How to exercise your information rights (including the right to object)

Erasure

When have I the right to all my personal data being deleted by LauraLynn:

You have the right to have your personal data deleted without undue delay if?

- The personal data is no longer necessary in relation to the purpose(s) for which it was collected/processed
- You are withdrawing consent and where there is no other legal ground for the processing
- You object to the processing and there are no overriding legitimate grounds for the processing
- The personal data has been unlawfully processed
- The personal data must be erased so that we are in compliance with legal obligation

What happens if LauraLynn has made my personal data public?

If we have made your personal data public, we, taking account of available technology and the cost of implementation, will take reasonable steps, including technical measures, to inform those who are processing your personal data that you have requested the erasure.

What happens if LauraLynn has disclosed my personal data to third parties?

Where we have disclosed your personal data in question to third parties, we will inform them of your request for erasure where possible. We will also confirm to you details of relevant third parties to whom the data has been disclosed where appropriate.

Data portability

When can I receive my personal data in machine-readable format from LauraLynn?

You will receive your personal data concerning you in a structured, commonly used and machine-readable format if:

- processing is based on consent or contract
- processing is carried out by automated means.

Would LauraLynn transfer the personal data to another service provider if I requested this?

We can transfer this data to another service provider selected by you on your written instruction where it is technically feasible taking into account the available technology and the feasible cost of transfer proportionate to the service we provide to you.

Under what circumstances can LauraLynn refuse?

You will not be able to obtain, or have transferred in machine-readable format, your personal data if we are processing this data in the public interest or in the exercise of official authority vested in us.

LauraLynn Privacy Statement Volunteer Programme

Will LauraLynn provide me with my personal data if the file contains the personal data of others?

We will only provide you with your personal data, ensuring we protect the rights and freedoms of others. Where personal data of another person may be on the same file(s) as yours, we will redact the full details of the other person.

To make a Data Subject Access Request please complete the request form attached DSAR Form and contact us at (dpo@lauralynn.ie).

Automated individual decision making

What are my rights in respect of automated decision making?

LauraLynn does not have any automated decision-making processes. Where any such processes are introduced, we will provide you with the relevant information required under the "General Data Protection Regulation".

Object

Have I already been informed about my right to object?

We have informed you of your right to object prior to us collecting any of your personal data as stated in our privacy statement.

When can I object to LauraLynn processing my personal data?

You can object on grounds relating to your situation.

LauraLynn will stop processing your personal data unless:

- we can demonstrate compelling legitimate grounds for the processing, which override your interests, rights and freedoms
- the processing is for the establishment, exercise or defence of legal claims.

Restrict processing

When can I restrict processing?

You may have processing of your personal data restricted:

- While we are verifying the accuracy of your personal data which you have contested
- If you choose restricted processing over erasure where processing is unlawful
- If we no longer need the personal data for its original purpose but are required to hold the personal data for defence of legal claims
- Where you have objected to the processing (where it was necessary for the performance of a public interest task or purpose of legitimate interests), and we are considering whether our legitimate grounds override.

What if LauraLynn has provided my personal data to third parties?

Where we have disclosed your personal data in question to third parties, we will inform them about the restriction on the processing, unless it is impossible or involves disproportionate effort to do so.

LauraLynn Privacy Statement Volunteer Programme

How will I know if the restriction is lifted by LauraLynn and/or relevant third parties?

We will inform you on an individual basis when a restriction on processing has been lifted.

Rectification

What can I do if LauraLynn is holding incorrect personal data about me?

Where you suspect that data we hold about you is inaccurate, we will on demand rectify any inaccuracies without undue delay and provide confirmation of same.

What happens if LauraLynn has disclosed my personal data to third parties?

Where we have disclosed inaccurate personal data to third parties, we will inform them and request confirmation that rectification has occurred. We will also provide you with details of the third parties to whom your personal data has been disclosed.

Withdraw consent

Under what circumstances could I withdraw consent?

You can withdraw consent if we are processing your personal data based on your consent.

When can I withdraw consent?

You can withdraw consent at any time.

If I withdraw consent what happens to my current data?

Any processing based on your consent will cease upon the withdrawal of that consent. Your withdrawal will not affect any processing of personal data prior to your withdrawal of consent, or any processing which is not based on your consent.

Lodge a complaint

Can I lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission?

You can lodge a complaint with the Data Protection Commission in respect of any processing by or on behalf of LauraLynn of personal data relating to you.

How do I lodge a complaint?

Making a complaint is simple and free. All you need to do is write to the Data Protection Commission giving details about the matter. You should clearly identify the organisation or individual you are complaining about. You should also outline the steps you have taken to have your concerns dealt with by the organisation, and what sort of response you received from them. Please also provide copies of any letters between you and the organisation, as well as supporting evidence/material.

- where we have collected your personal data from a third party, we will provide you with the information as to our source of your personal data
- any automated decision-making, including profiling, which includes your personal data. We will provide you with meaningful information about the logic involved, as well as the significance and the envisaged consequences of such processing for you.

LauraLynn Privacy Statement Volunteer Programme

How long will it take to receive my personal data from LauraLynn?

We will provide you with a copy of the personal data we are currently processing within one month of request. In rare situations if we are unable to provide you with the data within one month we will notify you, within one month of your valid request, explaining the reason for the delay and will commit to delivery within a further two months.

How much will it cost me to receive my personal data?

We will not charge for providing your personal data.

Can I request additional copies of my personal data?

If you require additional copies, we will charge €20 to cover our administrative costs.

Can I receive my personal data electronically?

You can request your personal data by electronic means and we will provide your personal data in a commonly used electronic form, if technically feasible.

What will LauraLynn do if another person's personal data is shared with my personal data?

We will only provide you with your personal data, ensuring we protect the rights and freedoms of others. Where personal data of another person may be on the same file(s) as yours, we will redact the full details of the other person.

13. Changes to this notice

Where changes to this Privacy Statement occur, the updated version will be published on our website at Privacy and Security | LauraLynn and where appropriate/possible communicated directly to individuals through a communication channel we deem appropriate.
